

Supreme Council Order of the Amaranth, Inc.

Web Page Guidelines

The Order of the Amaranth's Web Page provides the official communications between members of the Supreme Council, Grand and Subordinate Courts and Subordinate Courts under Supreme Council jurisdiction.

As an official information center of the Order, care and concern is required to preserve the integrity of the Order.

Web pages must be maintained by each individual Webmaster. All web pages must be in accordance to all laws like: copyrights, obscenity, defamation, and harassment Also the Right of Privacy Act. In addition it is advised to adhere to the standards and policies set down by the Supreme Council, and all Federal, State and local laws regulating computer use.

Use of the official logo of the Order of the Amaranth as part of a Web Page is to be in accordance with the Supreme Trustees. An application form to use the Amaranth logo can be downloaded at the Web Page Check List.

Web pages posted does not reflect the opinions or views of the Supreme Council Order of the Amaranth Inc.

Each Grand Court is required to have a Web Committee and a Webmaster or contact person is to be designated by the Grand Royal Matron.

The Webmaster's name is to be fixed with the Supreme Secretary, Chairman and Secretary of the Board of the Trustees and Chairman of the Supreme Web Committee.

Supreme Council Trustees and the Supreme Web Page Committee reserve the right to unlink any web pages.

Information about members fall under the privacy act. Written permission is to be kept on file by the Chairman of the Web Comittee.

All text material submitted for Supreme Web Pages should be in either TXT or HTML format. All graphics (pictures) should be submitted in GIF or JPG format.

Please remember before Web Pages can be linked to Supreme Council Web Site they are to be submitted to the Supreme Web Committee for approval.

If you have any questions or need some help please feel free to contact anyone on the Web Committee.

• Do's

- Ask your Web Page Committee for help, this part of our job. This can be done at both Supreme and Grand Court level.
- Confine yourself to providing information about the Order of the Amaranth and/or of its philanthropic work
- All web page sites must clearly identify the owner, including name and e-mail.
(this is usually at the bottom of the home page)
- Maintain the highest level of quality in your communications
- Acknowledge that your Grand Court, Subordinate Court or Subordinate Court under Supreme Jurisdiction receive their authority to operate from Supreme Council Order of the Amaranth, Inc. or Grand Court Order of the Amaranth.
- Coordinate your homepage with masonically related homepages within your jurisdiction. Be sure your homepages comply with regulations established by the Grand Lodge within your jurisdiction with respect to World Wide Web homepages. This is especially true if you will be mounting your home page on a Grand Lodge server.

• Don't

- Use Supreme Council Order of the Amaranth, Inc. to promote commercial, religious or political causes
- List Grand or Subordinate Court Officer's home and /or business addresses or phone numbers.
- List e-mail addresses without prior verbal approval.
- Violate copyright laws
- Display private information